

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

25X1A

169

COUNTRY

Germany (Soviet Zone)

CLASSIFICATION: SECRET//CONTINGENCY//OFFICIALS ONLY

SECURITY INFORMATION REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

TOPIC

Re German Shipments in Wolmirstedt.

25X1X

25X1A

PLACE OBTAINED

25X1C

EVALUATION

DATE OF CONTENT

ORIGIN

E PREPARED 23 November 1951

REFERENCES

PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. &amp; TYPE)

REMARKS

REFERENCE COPY

DO NOT CIRCULATE

25X1X

1. At 4 p.m. on 27 October 1951, about 30 motor vehicles with 6 heavy and about 12 light AA guns, 2 field kitchens and an ambulance were seen driving to the Wolmirstedt railroad station to be entrained there. Some of the vehicles were

25X1AB

2. A train, which passed through the Wolmirstedt railroad station at 1 p.m. on 3 November, coming from the direction of Stendal and proceeding toward Magdeburg, carried 14 to 16 SP guns with [REDACTED] 2 jeeps, 3 sedans, 1 radio truck and 4 field kitchens. *

25X1B

F-2 3. Five armored vehicles which were seen driving to the Wolmirstedt railroad station to be entrained in October were photographed. **

25X1A

25X1B

Comment. [REDACTED] the materiel entrained on 27 October 1951 belongs to components of the 3d Gds (?) AT Arty Brig. Source probably confused the units' AT guns with AA guns. The train observed on 3 November 1951 carried a tank unit which, [REDACTED] is believed to belong to the 136th Gds Lv Tank SP Regt of the Third Shock Army.

25X1A Comment. Photograph 1 shows one JS-3 tank, and Nos 2 through 5 SU-100 SP guns.

25X1B According to [REDACTED] the armored vehicles possibly belong to the 79th Gds Lv Tank SP Regt of the 7th Gds Tank Div. The photographs confirm that regiments of this type are equipped with JS tanks and SU-100 SP guns.

Document No. 007
 No Change in Class.
 Declassified
 Item Change Log TS S (6)
 Author: KP 162
 Date: 27/03/78 By: 008

CLASSIFICATION SECRET//CONTINGENCY//OFFICIALS ONLY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~